Policies

I- Aboriginal Education

1. The PRDTU is committed to the full active participation of Aboriginal teachers in all aspects of PRDTU and School District activities.
2. The PRDTU supports Aboriginal teachers being represented on all District Advisory and implementation committees.
3. Where no Aboriginal teachers are represented on a District Committee, the Aboriginal Education Representative will act as the liaison with that committee.
4. The PRDTU will actively encourage the Board to enlist Aboriginal teachers and students in its committee work.
5. The PRDTU supports the principle of affirmative action with respect to the employment of Aboriginal teachers in School District No. 52.
6. The PRDTU is committed to the development and implementation of Aboriginal Curriculum.

II- Picket line Penalties

1. The Executive Committee shall be delegated the power to conduct hearing and to assess penalties for picket line crossings according to guidelines established by the federation.
2. The hearing of allegations of picket line violations may be in person or in writing at the discretion of the Executive Committee and shall be conducted prior to assessment of penalties.
3. The standard penalty for crossing a local union picket line shall be a fine equivalent to gross pay received from the employer for days upon which said picket line is crossed. Additional penalties applicable may include warning, reprimand, loss of rights to hold office, loss of specified privileges and appropriate publication.
4. Any strike pay which picket line violators would normally have received will be forfeited.
5. Members found by the Executive Committee to be in violation of picket lines and penalized therefore may appeal such finding and/or penalty in writing to the chairperson of the judicial Council who shall assign and Appeal Panel. The appeal may be heard orally or in writing at the discretion of the Appeal Panel.

III- The Role and Responsibilities of the Staff Representative

A Staff Representative is responsible for linking staff with the Executive Committee by attending Executive Committee meetings, speaking for the staff at the meetings, and taking information back to the staff.

The three goals of a staff representative are to:

1. Assume authority within the school as the prime PRDTU/BCTF representative,
2. Be an effective problem solver and source of information,
3. Assume an active leadership role on staff.

To meet Goal 1 – A Staff Representative

1. Works with other PRDTU committee reps within the school to further the goals of the PRDTU within the school.
2. Facilitates discussions of issues of concern to the PRDTU/BCTF at the staff level in order to effectively communicate provincial and district concerns to staffs.
3. Encourage attendance of PRDTU members at meetings and social events of the union and
4. Encourage TTOC's to become active members of the PRDTU.

To meet Goal 2 – A Staff Representative

1. Will attend a Staff Union-Representative Training
2. May accept training which provides skills to become a future officer of the Executive Committee.
3. Should be familiar with Robert's Rules of Order.

To meet Goal 3 – A Staff Representative

1. Will assume a leadership role in initiating and developing collegial decision – making practices within the school.
2. Acts as an advocate, in conjunction with other PRDTU committee representatives, for staff members in matters of professional concern at the school and District level (through the Executive).

IV – Staff Representative: Policy Statements

a) Staff Representative Training

1. New staff representatives shall receive a one – day training workshop early in the school year. Any necessary TTOC costs shall be paid by the union.
2. The Vice-President of the PRDTU shall have the particular responsibility for ensuring on-going staff representative training.

b) Staff Representative Handbooks

1. At the beginning of each school year, each staff representative shall be provided with an updated Staff Representative Handbook.
2. It shall be the responsibility of each staff representative to update his/her copy of the handbook as is required during the school year.
3. Each staff representative shall return his/her copy of the handbook to the President at the end of the school year.

V – Bargaining

1. Each staff representative shall initiate and chair a one-item staff meeting to determine staff bargaining priorities by January 31st of the year prior to the expiration of the collective agreement as a formal step in the bargaining process. These bargaining priorities shall then be presented to the PRDTU Collective Bargaining Committee at a joint CBC-Staff Rep. Meeting in early February of each year.

Collective Bargaining Committee Policy Statement

- 1.1 The Collective Bargaining Committee has the task of coordinating the collective bargaining effort of the PRDTU and, specifically, to carry out the following functions:

- i) to determine annually a set of objectives and strategies for collective bargaining;
- ii) to prepare and, in conjunction with the constituent committees co-ordinate, case preparations for collective bargaining;
- iii) to exclusively represent the PRDTU at all negotiation sessions with the Board of School Trustees or its agents pertaining to the Collective Agreement;
- iv) to negotiate a full collective agreement that should include the following components;
 - a) job description and working conditions
 - b) professional rights and responsibilities
 - c) job security and personnel practices
 - d) salaries and allowances
 - e) salary protection; andto select a negotiating team and spokesperson

- 1.2 In carrying out the negotiations with the Board of School Trustees or its agents, the Collective Bargaining Committee will be guided by the following statements:
- i) Prior to the negotiations with the Board of School Trustees or its agents, the Collective Bargaining Committee shall present the bargaining objective to the Executive Committee of the PRDTU and to a general meeting;
 - ii) Prior to signifying formal acceptance of a collective agreement to the Board of School Trustees or its agents, the Collective Bargaining Committee shall present any “agreement in Committee” to the Executive Committee and a general meeting for acceptance or rejection;
 - iii) In the event of an impasse in bargaining, the Collective Bargaining Committee may recommend to the PRDTU Executive and a general Meeting strategies for the resolution of the impasse.
 - iv) An on-going effort to upgrade the knowledge and skills of members of the Collective Bargaining Committee shall be undertaken.
- 1.3 that the Collective Bargaining Committee shall monitor the Collective Agreement

VI – Grievance Policy

1. The Local Union as Bargaining Agent is the party which must deal with contract violations. Members with possible school-based grievances should immediately inform the staff representative. Members with possible grievances arising at the district level should immediately inform the President.
2. The President shall have overall responsibility for the processing of grievances. The President shall keep BCTF staff informed of the state of grievances as necessary, and shall advise BCTF staff in all cases when a formal grievance is filed. The President shall advise BCTF staff whenever it appears likely that board action involving dismissal or long-term suspension may be contemplated.
3. Staff representatives shall, where appropriate, provide assistance to teachers concerning grievances at the school level, shall assist the President in processing the grievance, and shall keep the grievor and the staff informed about developments in pursuing a grievance.
4. There shall be a grievance committee comprised of the President, the Bargaining Chairperson, and the Vice-President, and another member of the local chosen by the Executive. When dealing with a grievance from a specific school, the staff representative for that school shall participate in the committee. The committee advises the President on the conduct of grievances and makes a recommendation to the Executive regarding referral of a grievance to arbitration. The President, the Vice-President, the Bargaining Chairperson shall constitute the PRDTU Members of the Joint Grievance Committee referred to in Article A8 of the Collective Agreement. The authority to refer a grievance to arbitration shall rest with the Executive, which shall consider any recommendation of the grievance committee and the BCTF Bargaining Division. The Bargaining Division should also be consulted for a recommendation when the grievance committee recommends that a significant grievance not proceed to the arbitration.

5. A member dissatisfied with a decision to not proceed in the member's grievance or with an executive decision to not proceed to arbitration may appeal to the next general meeting of the Union. Where such an appeal is communicated in writing, the President shall take any available steps to preserve time limits on a without prejudice basis, while the appeal to the general meeting is pending.
6. Except in extraordinary circumstances and by a 75% contrary vote of those voting at an executive meeting and a negative recommendation from the Bargaining Division, any grievance of a member in respect of termination of employment or suspension of three months or more shall, at the member's request, be referred to arbitration. The member may appeal a negative decision to the next general meeting, which shall decide the matter by majority vote.

November, 1989

7. The appropriate committee to consult with the school district on job descriptions as outlined in Article B1.12 shall be the Grievance Committee.

May, 1999
